Quad Club Quality – Dinesh Maneyapanda '94

Greetings from Quad! I'm pleased to write to you and to inform you about upcoming events and new initiatives taking place at Quad.

Homecoming: The Princeton-Yale football weekend is fast approaching, and I hope to see many of you while on campus for the celebration on November 14th. As usual, Quad will be hosting two meals on that day: a pre-game full-service brunch buffet from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. for $15, and a post-game dinner buffet including beer and wine, from 3 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. for $25. For both events, kids under 14 are free. Please note that the prices are set so that the club may break-even on these two events. In addition, Quad will also be offering a free wine consultation at 5 p.m. The event will include wine tasting as well as education about the art of wine-making.

Undergraduate Officers: Quad's undergraduate membership elected the following five members of the Class of 2010 as its officer team. These five have been tireless in their support of the membership and of the club, and their enthusiasm for connecting with alumni has been unparalleled. Please join me in thanking these students and wishing them well during the remainder of their time at the Club and at the University!

- Zackory Burns '10 – President
- Summer Wimberly '10 – Vice President
- Eric Cohen '10 – Treasurer
- Chi Onejeme '10 – Co-Social Chair
- Fernando Sanchez '10 – Co-Social Chair

Facebook: Quad recently started a new Quad alumni Facebook group. If you haven't yet joined, visit www.facebook.com and search for "Quadrangle Club Alumni." We intend to keep the group page updated with events and discussion board topics.

Alumni-Member Events: In the coming year, the Undergraduate Officers and the Graduate Board hope to increase the number of opportunities available for Quad alumni and current members to meet, interact, network, celebrate, and build relationships. We are currently planning for an event to be held during Commiversity Weekend. Stay tuned for more information in the coming months.

From the President – Zackory Burns ‘10

It is a privilege and honor to serve as the Quadrangle Club President. Quad members are happy and love the club. There is an air of intimacy and familiarity that has resulted in a very positive social, intellectual, and dynamic membership.

We would like to recognize and thank Quad’s Class of 2009 for their contributions to the club. Our senior members are going on to work for the State Department and Microsoft; they are participating in Princeton-in-Asia and are serving the United States Navy; they are continuing their education at places like Yale, Duke, Emory and Stanford. As these individuals move onto the next chapter of their lives and become the youngest members of our esteemed alumni network, we wish them well and hope to see them back at the club soon.

During my term, I hope to connect you, the Quad alumni, with our current undergraduate membership. I invite you to contact me with ideas and suggestions you have about Quad. And please let us know when you plan to visit so that we can make your return to Quad and to campus as enjoyable as possible. I can be reached at zburns@princeton.edu. Thank you.

Quad Needs You

As everyone is well aware, recent economic times have caused many of us to reevaluate our investments, our priorities, and our future. Although Princeton Quadrangle Club has experienced typical ebb and flow of membership numbers over the past few years, Quad has remained unfaltering in its commitment to its current undergraduate membership – consistent in its facilities, its food, and its fun. We are now at a time in which contributions from the alumni community are essential for the success of our plan to further the quality and legacy of the Princeton Quadrangle Club. We need your help and support. On behalf of the entire Graduate Board, I hope you will consider investing in Quad as one of your priorities, so that we may all continue to enjoy its offerings for many more years in the future.

Please consider contributing to the Princeton Quadrangle Club this year, so that your dollars can immediately go to benefit our current undergraduate membership. As always, please note that gifts made directly to Quad are not considered tax deductible by the IRS, whereas gifts made out to “Princeton Prospect Foundation – Quadrangle Account” are tax deductible. We encourage you to use the enclosed envelope or to make an online gift via the Princeton Prospect Foundation website: <http://www.princeton.edu/~ppf/donate>.

Sincerely,

Dinesh Maneyapanda ‘94
